P. RUTLIUS R. PRAY.

P. D. VROOM.
An act for the appointment of Commissioners to adjust the claims to reservations of land under the fourteenth article of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty with the Choctaw Indians.
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That, there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, three commissioners, whose duty it shall be to meet in the State of Mississippi at such time and place, as the President shall appoint and designate, and there proceed to ascertain the name of every Choctaw Indian who was the head of an Indian family at the date of the treaty at Dancing Rabbit Creek, who has not already obtained a reservation under said treaty, and who can show by satisfactory evidence that he or she complied or offered to comply with all the requisites of the 14th article of said treaty, to entitle him or her, to a reservation under said article; and also the number and names of all the unmarried children of such heads of families, who formed a part of the family, and were over ten years of age, and likewise the number and names of the children of such heads of families as were under ten years of age, and report to the President, to be, by him, laid before Congress, at the session of which Indians, and the different sections of land to which such heads of families were respectively entitled, together with the opinions of the commissioners, and whether any part of said lands have been sold by the Government, and the proofs applicable to each case.
Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That said Commissioners shall have full power to summon and cause to come before them, such witnesses as they may deem necessary, and to have them examined on oath, and if any witness shall testify falsely, with an intention to mislead said Commissioners, such witness shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and shall, upon conviction before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof, suffer the punishment by law inflicted on those guilty of that offence.
Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to sanction such Indians, residing in locations which have been made by George W. Martin for the benefit of such Indians, as were supposed to have been sold by the United States, such contingent locations having been made, without any legal authority. It being the true intent of this act to reserve to Congress the power of doing that which may appear just when a correct knowledge of all the facts is obtained.
ARTICLE 14. Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Assistant Commissioner, within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres, in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child; which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent.
If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the United States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue, said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it, persons who claim under the article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they remove are not entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity.

RUMOR having reached the interior, (from what source we know not) that we had discontinued the Commission Business in this City.—We take this method to inform our friends and the public that our House is now open and has been all the season, the business promptly attended to, and that we intend to continue it. It is true, we did not escape the effects of the unparalleled pressure, which pervaded the whole Commercial world, and placed it beyond our power to afford the same facilities to our friends we had formerly done—but it is with much pleasure (and we may owe one dollar to the country, nor have we ever retained the funds for produce sold a moment longer than a favorable opportunity offered to forward them. Our arrangements are now such that we will be able to move smoothly on; and hope from long experience, (fourteen years of our senior), to render satisfactory accounts of all business entrusted to our care. We respectfully solicit a continuance of the business of our old patrons and such others as may think proper to confide it to our care.
